

Sensory Play

Use sensory activities like this to support listening and attention:

- sieving flour / glitter / lentils / salt onto black card
- dribbling paint from a height onto paper
- mix water, paint and washing up liquid and gently blow a straw into the mixture, etc.

Support your child to watch the activity.

Support them to describe what they have seen / heard / felt / smelled, etc.